MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Certification and Liaison Division/OF
THROUGH : Chief, Contract Personnel Division/OP
SUBJECT : Memorandum of Oral Commitments

25X1
1. In conjunction with a planned September 12-14 colloquium on the role in their own strategy Moscow and Peking envision Japan may come to play into the 1980's, [redacted] the National Intelligence Officer [redacted] has extended invitations to approximately thirty Japan/Sino-Soviet experts both in and out of government service.

2. As attested to by the attached letter, it is our intention to pay not only the transportation, travel and related expenses of the attendees in accordance with regulations, but also in the case of the non-government scholars, to pay an honorarium of $138.48 per day for the anticipated two days duration of the colloquium. In addition, [redacted] of George Washington University will serve as rapporteur and prepare a detailed critique of the conference. For this service, which will occupy 15 working days, a fee of $100 per day has been agreed upon.

3. Attached you will find a list of the non-government attendees as well as copies of our correspondence to them which contain the commitments cited herein. Charges for this activity will be borne by the National Intelligence Officers Fiscal Year 1975 funds allotment 5213-2000, obligation reference 1595, for which funds have been programmed and are available.
